

River Riddles That Take You on a Voyage of Fun

GoRiddles

Wonders of the Riverbank

1. I twist and turn, but I'm not a dancer. I flow to the sea, but I'm not a fish, a prancer. What am I?
2. I'm a small stream that flows into a larger line. What am I called when I merge and combine?
3. I'm the land on either side that gets quite a splash. When water levels rise, I can turn to a marsh. What am I?
4. I'm where the river ends its run, and greets the sea beneath the sun. What am I?
5. I'm born where mountain waters flow, I start the journey down below. What am I?

Wildlife of the Waters

6. I swim upstream when it's time to lay eggs. With my pinkish hue and strong, muscular legs. What am I?
7. I build dams with sticks, a crafty little chap. In lodges by the river, I take a long nap. What am I?
8. Long and slippery, I glide through the stream. What am I that makes fishermen beam?
9. I'm a bird with a dive, quick as a flash. Catching fish from the river with a swoop and a splash. What am I?
10. A large reptile, I lurk with a grin. My powerful jaws are where danger begins. What am I?

Adventures Along the River

11. With paddles in hand, I glide on the stream. What am I doing, living my dream?
12. In rough waters, I navigate with thrill. What am I that gives an adventurous chill?
13. I cast a line with hopes of a catch. What am I doing, with bait in my batch?
14. In teams we race, making waves with our might. What am I called when boat take flight?
15. I search for gold in the riverbed's flow. What am I doing, digging down low?

Riddles of Renowned Rivers

16. I'm the longest river, where ancient tales thrive. Flowing through Africa, I keep history alive. What am I?
17. Through the Grand Canyon, I cut and I flow. What river am I that puts on a show?
18. In Paris, I flow, with bridges so fine. What am I that makes the city divine?
19. In London, I twist and I wind with grace. What am I that sets the city's pace?
20. Serving as a border, I'm wide and grand. What river am I that defines this land?

Secrets Beneath the Surface

21. I vanish from sight, then appear out of blue. What am I that plays this disappearing act, too?
22. I spin and I whirl, pulling you near. What am I in the river, creating a fear?
23. I rush through depths, both dark and wide, a secret path beneath the tide. What am I?
24. Formed by the flow, I carve through the stone. What am I that nature has shaped on its own?
25. I'm a body of water formed in a dip. What am I that a river might drip?

Rippling Laughs

26. I can be fast or slow, but I always move and never stop. What am I?
27. I'm a rocky part of the river that causes a dash. What am I that makes the water splash?
28. Nature built me with grace, not man. I span the stream without a plan. What am I?
29. I'm the muddy deposit left behind when the waters rise. What am I that leaves behind a surprise?
30. I'm a lovely curve in the river, creating a bend. What am I that twists without end?
-

Twisting Currents: A River Challenge

31. I am a river that changes course over time, creating new paths and leaving old ones behind. What am I?
32. I wear away rocks, creating a smooth line. What am I that shapes the world over time?
33. I'm fertile and rich near a river's side, perfect for crops that grow far and wide. What am I?
34. Where two rivers meet, joining as one, flowing together until their journey is done. What am I?
35. I'm the water that feeds into rivers, coming from rain, melting snow, or underground springs. What am I?

Answers key

1. A river
2. A tributar
3. A floodplain
4. The mouth
5. The source
6. A salmon
7. A beaver
8. An eel
9. A kingfisher
10. A crocodile
11. Canoeing
12. White-water rafting
13. Fishing
14. Rowing
15. Panning for gold
16. The Nile
17. The Colorado River
18. The Seine
19. The Thames
20. The Rio Grande
21. A disappearing river
22. An eddy
23. The channel
24. A canyon
25. A lake
26. A river
27. A rapid
28. A natural bridge
29. Silt
30. A meander
31. A braided river
32. Erosion
33. A river delta
34. A confluence
35. Runoff

